MRS Meeting Policies

▶ Recording Policy

Recording of Presentations is Strictly Prohibited. No individual or entity—including a presenting author—may electronically record or broadcast any portion of the MRS Meeting without prior written consent of MRS. Unauthorized recording (audio, video, still photography, etc.) of presentations during sessions, posters, workshops, tutorials, etcetera, without the express written consent of MRS and individual authors is strictly prohibited. MRS reserves the rights to any approved audio and video production of presentations at all MRS events. Press representatives must receive a Press Pass and photo/recording permission from MRS. Those who do not comply with the MRS recording policy may have their access to meeting content revoked.

▶ Photo Policy

Attendees or exhibitors are encouraged to network and enjoy the meeting experience. As such, capturing memories of casual meeting activities and networking is permitted with the permission of those being prominently photographed. Photographing formal meeting presentations, posters, or displays is forbidden without permission of MRS and the presenter. Those who do not comply with the MRS Photo policy may have their access to meeting content revoked.

▶ Videos and Photos for MRS Use

MRS Meeting attendance implies your consent to be photographed, filmed and/or otherwise recorded for use on the MRS website or news publications. Please note that no technical presentations will be recorded without prior consent of MRS and the authors.

▶ MRS Publishing Policy

MRS journals do allow submission and publication of figures and content that have appeared online as part of a virtual presentation. Standard journal peer-review policies apply to these submitted papers. If you plan to submit to a non-MRS journal, we recommend that you first review that journal's policies.

▶ Transaction Policy

MRS reserves the right not to process any transaction that it determines, in its sole discretion, may violate any law or regulation applying to persons, entities, or nations on the United States Treasury Department's Specially Designated Nationals list or any similar list maintained by the U.S. Government.

If you need more information on the U.S. Treasury Department's Specially Designated Nationals list, please visit ustreas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sdn.

MRS Code of Conduct

A Core Value of MRS is being broadly inclusive and egalitarian. MRS members and event participants are expected to foster an inclusive, cooperative environment where all are welcomed, open dialogue is encouraged and all perspectives are appreciated. Every member and event participant is expected to act in a professional, responsible and courteous manner while engaged in MRS events and activities. Unprofessional behavior, including disparaging comments and unwelcome conduct related to sex, race, color, gender, age, disability, orientation or religion, will not be tolerated. If any member or event participant engages in unprofessional behavior, MRS leadership may take any action it deems appropriate, ranging from a simple warning to the offender to expulsion from current and future MRS activities.

Promoting technical excellence is another Core Value of MRS. MRS authors and co-authors are expected to adhere to the highest ethical standards with regard to abstract submissions, presentations, and publication. It is the responsibility of all authors to ensure the integrity of reported results, compliance to sponsoring organization policies, and the acknowledgment of contributors, funding organizations and institutions where the research was conducted.

I acknowledge that I have read the MRS Meeting Policies, as well as the MRS Code of Conduct, and agree to their terms and conditions.

NOTE: You must agree to the terms above to register for the Meeting. Those who do not comply with MRS Policies and Code of Conduct may have their access to meeting content revoked.
